Internal Reference Manual

August 2011

Arizona Legislative Council

The internal reference manual is an annual staff project of the Arizona Legislative Council. It is designed to be of assistance in the legislative process by providing notice of specifically interrelated statutory provisions. Additionally, the staff through this activity locates various irregularities in the statutes that may be recommended for legislative evaluation. Users are urged to notify the Council staff of any error in this document.

This edition has been updated to incorporate changes occasioned by enactments through the Fiftieth Legislature, First Regular Session.
