

Education Policy Advisor

Job Summary: The Republican Caucus at the Arizona House of Representatives invites applications for an education policy advisor beginning in November, 2013. Responsibilities include; planning, developing and implementing education policy directives.

Required Skills: Applicants must demonstrate knowledge and experience with education law and education finance. Strong consideration will be given to those who can demonstrate written and spoken communication skills.

Minimum qualifications: A bachelor's degree. Preferred qualifications include an advanced degree or a law degree.

Salary is commensurate with experience.

Send résumé by October 22, 2013, to Tami Stowe, Director of Operations, at tstowe@azleg.gov