AGENCY DESCRIPTION — The board reviews cases involving violations of the state’s occupational safety and health laws. The cases start with an informal conference with the Industrial Commission’s Occupational Safety and Health Division Director. If the case cannot be resolved, the employer can request a hearing before an Industrial Commission Administrative Law Judge. If either the Director of the Occupational Safety and Health Division or the employer disagrees with the ruling, it can be appealed before the Occupational Safety and Health Review Board.

The agency’s budget was originally appropriated in Laws 2003, Chapter 262. For details on this agency’s FY 2005 budget, please see the FY 2004 Appropriations Report. Laws 2004, Chapter 275 amended the budget to incorporate statewide salary changes and other statewide technical adjustments. (Please see the Statewide Adjustments section at the end of this Appropriations Report for details.)
