AGENCY DESCRIPTION — The board reviews cases involving violations of the state’s occupational safety and health laws. The cases start with an informal conference with the Industrial Commission’s Occupational Safety and Health Division Director. If the case cannot be resolved, the employer can request a hearing before an Industrial Commission Administrative Law Judge. If either the Director of the Occupational Safety and Health Division or the employer disagrees with the ruling, it can be appealed before the Occupational Safety and Health Review Board.

This agency’s budget was originally appropriated in Laws 2005, Chapter 286. For details on this agency’s original FY 2007 budget, please see the FY 2006 Appropriations Report.

^{1/} As of the end of FY 2005, the board had a total of $29,500 of unused monies from prior years’ non-lapsing appropriations.

^{2/} Additional board expenses are paid for by the federal government as part of a grant. These monies are included in the non-appropriated budget of the Industrial Commission’s Occupational Safety and Health Division.
