State of Arizona
House of Representatives
Forty-eighth Legislature
Second Regular Session
2008

HCR 2015

Introduced by Representatives Reagan, Kavanagh, Weiers J, Senator Allen

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

ON THE DEATH OF CALVIN M. HOLMAN.

(TEXT OF BILL BEGINS ON NEXT PAGE)

1 Calvin M. Holman died in a tragic automobile accident on December 28, 2 2007 at the age of seventy-six.

3 Born and raised in Topeka, Kansas, Cal Holman attended Harvard College
4 and Stanford University. In 1956, he married Elizabeth Jordan and they moved 5 to Chicago, where he began his banking career. In 1961, the Holmans and 6 their children moved to Phoenix, where Cal Holman served as assistant 7 controller at Valley National Bank and as a consultant in financial and 8 personnel data processing systems. He also taught computer software classes
9 at Arizona State University, where he served as president of the Systems
10 Management Association.

11 In 1974, Cal Holman ran for and won a seat in the Arizona House of 12 Representatives. He ably served his constituents in the Paradise Valley, 13 North Phoenix and Sun City areas in this capacity for ten years. During his 14 tenure in the Legislature, he served as chairman of numerous committees, and 15 was known as an exceptionally hard working and honest individual.

16 Despite the demands of his business and political endeavors, Cal Holman
17 gave freely of his time, energy and efforts to such worthwhile organizations
18 as a member of the Scottsdale Sunrise Rotary and as a deacon of Valley
19 Presbyterian Church. He continued to remain active in the Republican Party 20 even after his legislative service ended, and had recently retired as 21 president of the Scottsdale Republican Forum. He was a member and past 22 president of the Harvard Alumni Club in Phoenix, and was currently serving as 23 treasurer of the Stanford Alumni Club in Phoenix.

24 Dedicated to his family, Cal Holman will be greatly missed by his wife
25 of fifty-one years, Elizabeth, his son, Calvin, his daughter-in-law, 26 Virginia, his daughter, Mary, and his brother, Charles.
27 Therefore

28 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Arizona, the 29 Senate concurring:

30 That the Members of the Legislature express regret at the unexpected
31 and untimely death of Calvin M. Holman and extend their deepest condolences 32 to his family and many friends.
