OVERVIEW

HB 2100 allows state government to submit all statutorily required reports (reports) and budget estimates electronically.

PROVISIONS

1. Allows state government to submit all reports and budget estimates electronically.
2. Requires each state government to:
 - a. post all reports and budget estimates on their website; and
 - b. consult with the Secretary of State to ensure the Arizona State Library Archives and Public Records (ASLAPR) receives an adequate number of copies in an agreed upon format for archival purposes.

CURRENT LAW

ASLAPR is the central depository of all official books, records and documents not in current use of the state officers and departments. The state archives must be carefully kept and preserved, classified, catalogued and made available for inspection under the rules the director adopts (A.R.S. § 41-151.09).

State government is defined as any department, commission, board, institution or other agency of the state organization receiving, expending or disbursing state funds or incurring obligations against the state (A.R.S. § 41-4601).
