HOUSE OPENING CEREMONY & STATE OF THE STATE

PHOENIX – Media professionals who plan to attend the opening day ceremonies of the 2014 Arizona Legislature Monday, Jan. 13, 2014, and Governor Brewer’s State of the State, which will follow in the House chamber, should notify Christopher Leone by email no later than Thursday, Jan. 9, 2014 at cleone@azleg.gov.

In order to make this year’s ceremonies both productive and enjoyable, the Arizona House of Representatives will reserve spots for those media representatives who respond to this request for notification.

The Speaker of the House Andy Tobin would like to accommodate everyone, but may have to deny access to the press gallery on the House floor during the ceremonies to professionals who arrive on the day of the event and have not responded.

Arizona Capitol TV will be providing a pool video feed to broadcasters that day as well as relaying the ceremonies live to several House conference rooms setup to accommodate all visitors on that day. Contact Jason Fitzpatrick at jfitzpatrick@azleg.gov for information about the pool video feed.

On the day of the event, and whenever accessing the House floor, media professionals should have a company issued press badge. The badge should have a photo of the media professional as well as the company’s name and its logo.
