

NEWS RELEASE

Speaker of the House David Gowan
1700 West Washington • Phoenix, Arizona • 85007-2844

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONGRESSMAN SALMON, HE WILL BE MISSED

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX (Thursday, February 25, 2016) – Congressman Matt Salmon announced today he will not be seeking re-election after his term ends at the end of the year.

Speaker Gowan stated, “Congressman Salmon is a great American and great Arizonan. He has dedicated much of his life in service of his country which I respect and admire deeply. He has always stood for conservative values and voted his conscience even when it was a tough decision. He demonstrated his commitment to the voters when he abided by his term limits pledge during his first stint in Congress. Further still, I respect that he has chosen to focus on caring for his family, a loving cause that is to be applauded. The Salmon family also had great direction from Congressman Salmon’s loving wife, Nancy Salmon. I also appreciated getting to know Nancy Salmon through her leadership in the Republican Party and as former President of Mesa Republican Women. Once again I want to send my deepest thanks to Congressman Salmon and his family for their service to our state and country.”

We thank Congressman Salmon dearly for his unwavering service and we look forward for him to be back in the great state of Arizona.

MEDIA CONTACT:

Stephanie Grisham
Press Secretary
Arizona House of Representatives – Republican Caucus
sgrisham@azleg.gov
602.926.5518(office)
480.707.7434 (cell)