Overview

Continues the Civil Rights Advisory Board (Board) for eight years.

History

The Board is a statutory, seven-member advisory body housed within the Civil Rights Division of the Arizona Department of Law; its members are appointed by the Governor for three-year terms, and no more than four members may be from the same political party. In operation, the Board serves as an advisory body for the Civil Rights Division: the Division may employ an executive director for the Board, considers the Board's recommendations when issuing or updating procedural rules to carry out Arizona's civil rights laws, and is authorized to conduct periodic statewide surveys on discrimination, foster community efforts to eliminate discrimination, and publish results of studies, investigations, and research (A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 9, Article 1).

The House of Representatives Judiciary Committee of Reference conducted a review of the Board and recommended the Board be continued for eight years.
