SUMMARY OF LEGISLATION
2019

Fifty-Fourth Legislature
First Regular Session

Prepared by Research Staff

Dear Members:

Under the direction of the Arizona House of Representatives Speaker, the Honorable Russell W. "Rusty" Bowers, the House Research Staff is pleased to present the 2019 Summary of Legislation.

The House Research Staff is a full-time, nonpartisan staff that provides professional analysis services to the Arizona House of Representatives. It is comprised of legislative research analysts who staff each of the standing committees of the House of Representatives, as well as support staff and interns from the state's universities.

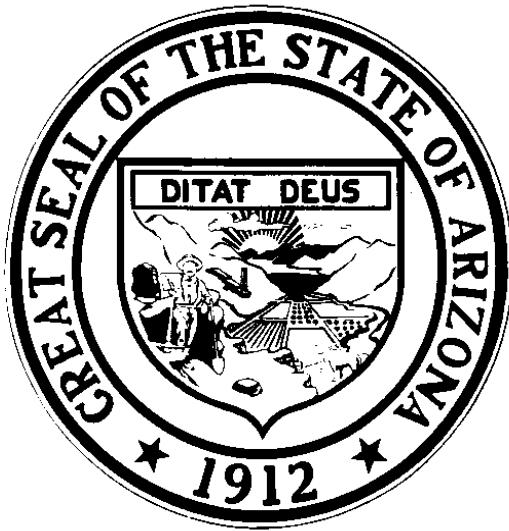

This annual publication contains descriptions of all legislation approved by the Legislature during the First Regular Session of the Fifty-Fourth Legislature. Additional bill information can be obtained from bill summaries prepared by the House Research Staff, vote history, committee meeting video archives and the chaptered bill itself. This information, as well as an electronic version of the 2019 Summary of Legislation, is available on the Arizona Legislature's website: www.azleg.gov.

On behalf of the House Research Staff, we would like to sincerely thank all individuals who contributed to the preparation of the 2019 Summary of Legislation.

Sincerely,

Diana Clay
Director of Research

Stephanie Jensen
Deputy Director of Research

HB 2704 (Chapter 114): underground storage tanks; process

Allows for the reimbursement of costs for underground storage tank (UST) corrective actions completed before receiving approval from the Arizona Department of Environmental Quality (ADEQ) if certain conditions are met. Requires ADEQ to develop an expedited preapproval process to address costs incurred for newly discovered contamination and costs necessary to avoid risk to public health and the environment.

Increases the maximum reimbursement amount for various non-corrective actions and specifies that monies received for the non-corrective actions are reimbursements, not grants.

Prohibits a UST lien settlement from being less than the estimated increase in the market value of the property after the corrective action is complete, as determined by a commercial real estate appraiser. ADEQ must reduce the amount of the lien as prescribed by statute.

SB 1227/HB 2545 (Chapter 1): Colorado River drought contingency; amendments

Makes various changes relating to the Drought Contingency Plan (DCP) as follows:

System Conservation

Establishes the Arizona System Conservation Fund and appropriates $30 million to the Arizona System Conservation Fund from the state GF in FY 2020.

Groundwater & Irrigation Efficiency Projects

Establishes the Temporary Groundwater and Irrigation Efficiency Projects Fund and appropriates a total of $9 million in FY 2019 as follows: 1) $7 million as a new GF appropriation; and 2) $2 million repurposed from a previous Arizona Department of Water Resources (ADWR) appropriation to conserve water in Lake Mead. Repurposes the current groundwater withdrawal fee in the Pinal Active Management Area (AMA) in calendar years 2020-2026 from water banking purposes to groundwater and irrigation efficiency projects.

Allows the Director of ADWR to grant monies from the Groundwater and Irrigation Efficiency Projects Fund to qualified irrigation districts and give funding preference to wells and related infrastructure that would be used to recover stored water.

Monies remaining in the Groundwater and Irrigation Efficiency Projects Fund on June 30, 2027 must be proportionally distributed to the contributors by December 31, 2027. The proportion of the uncommitted monies from the repurposed groundwater withdrawal fee must be deposited into the Arizona Water Banking Fund.

WaterBUD/Effluent

Allows up to 15,000 acre-feet of water per year between 2020-2026 to be stored in a groundwater savings facility in Pinal County and used to earn long-term storage credits (LTSCs) if the Director of ADWR determines that the storage assists in implementing the DCP. Outlines changes to the recoverable amount of effluent stored at an existing effluent managed underground storage facility (USF).

Allows effluent and imported water to be considered as water that cannot reasonably be used directly (waterBUD) past the current 2025 sunset date. Allows effluent stored at an existing effluent managed USF to be used to demonstrate an assured or adequate water supply if the LTSCs were accrued after January 31, 2019.

Credit Exchanges

Allows the Arizona Water Banking Authority (AWBA) to enter into agreements by December 31, 2019 to exchange LTSCs accrued or purchased in one AMA for LTSCs in another AMA if the Director of ADWR determines that the exchange is beneficial to Arizona's water management and will not substantially impair the AWBAs ability to meet its Indian firming obligation. The AWBA may distribute or extinguish these credits for the purposes currently authorized by statute for the benefit of any AMA.

Miscellaneous

Repurposes a $2 million appropriation from ADWR to the Augmentation and Conservation Fund in FY 2020. The Director of ADWR must make various updates to the Legislature and Governor regarding DCP agreements 30, 60 and 90 days after the enactment of the DCP joint resolution.

Effective: January 31, 2019

SJR 1001/HJR 2002 (Chapter 2): Colorado river drought contingency plan

States that the following action is being taken in response to unique and extraordinary circumstances:

Authorizes the Director of the Arizona Department of Water Resources (Director) to forbear Arizona's rights and claims to the Colorado River by entering into various agreements relating to an interstate Drought Contingency Plan (DCP) if: 1) specified federal legislation is enacted; and 2) all other parties have authorized the execution of the agreements. The Director is prohibited from entering into any of the authorized agreements after August 31, 2019 and any other future agreements regarding the sharing of DCP contributions without further authorization. The Director must promptly notify the Legislature and Governor upon entering into any authorized agreement.
