

House Ad Hoc Study Committee on Mandatory Bar Associations

PURPOSE: The study committee will examine the structure of the State Bar of Arizona. It will review the history and role of a mandatory bar association in Arizona as well as the practice in other states. It will also examine the practice of law in Arizona, how it is regulated, and the practices of other states. Finally, the committee will address the associational rights of attorneys in Arizona. The study committee will create a report, which may include any recommendations for proposed legislation.
