

Bill Number: S.B. 1357

Allen S Floor Amendment

Reference to: EDUCATION Committee amendment

Amendment drafted by: Leg Council

FLOOR AMENDMENT EXPLANATION

1. Subjects instructional materials, that are reviewed according to existing course of study requirements, to prescribed parental and guardian review policies.
2. Specifies instructional materials, that are approved by a school district governing board or charter governing body, must be on the instructional material listing published by a district or charter holder, instead of an individual school.
3. Requires a school to post a link to the list on the school district or charter holder website, if available.
4. Requires each school district or charter holder to post procedures for parents to access instructional materials.
5. Changes the definition of instructional materials to include reading materials, regardless if they are mandatory or optional, that are in print or digital format.
6. Removes requirements that:
 - a) instructional materials be available for review for the entire school year;
 - b) a school-designated employee be responsible for maintaining the instructional materials; and
 - c) policies are outlined allowing instructional materials to be taken from school premises for review.
7. Makes technical and conforming changes.
