B. It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer:
   1. To fail or refuse to hire or to discharge any individual or otherwise to discriminate against any individual with respect to the individual's compensation, terms, conditions or privileges of employment because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, SEXUAL ORIENTATION, GENDER IDENTITY, age or national origin or on the basis of disability.

disability of an individual with whom the individual qualified for the job or benefits is known to have a relationship or association.

test purports to measure, rather than reflecting the impaired sensory, manual or speaking skills of the applicant or employee, except if the skills are the factors that the test purports to measure.
G. Women who are affected by pregnancy or childbirth or related medical conditions shall be treated the same for all employment-related purposes, including receipt of benefits under fringe benefit programs, as other persons not so affected but similar in their ability or inability to work, and subsection J, paragraph 3 of this section may not be interpreted to allow otherwise.

if the differentiation is based on reasonable factors other than age.

bona fide employee benefit plan such as a retirement, pension, deferred no seniority system or employee benefit plan may require or allow the involuntary retirement of any individual specified by section 41-1465 because of the individual's age.

subversive activities control board pursuant to the subversive activities control act of 1950.

an unlawful employment practice:
1. For an employer to apply different standards of compensation or different terms, conditions or privileges of employment pursuant to a bona fide seniority or merit system or a system that measures earnings by quantity or quality of production or to employees who work in different locations, if these differences are not the result of an intention to discriminate because of race, color, religion, sex, SEXUAL ORIENTATION, GENDER IDENTIY or national origin.
