21 K. The aggravated or mitigated term imposed pursuant to subsection 22 H, I or J of this section may be imposed only if at least two of the 23 aggravating circumstances are found beyond a reasonable doubt to be true by 24 the trier of fact or are admitted by the defendant, except that an 25 aggravating circumstance under section 13-701, subsection D, paragraph 11 26 shall be found to be true by the court, or in mitigation of the crime are 27 found to be true by the court, on any evidence or information introduced or 28 submitted to the court or the trier of fact before sentencing or any 29 evidence presented at trial, and factual findings and reasons in support of 30 these findings are set forth on the record at the time of sentencing.

1           L. Convictions for two or more offenses committed on the same 2 occasion shall be counted as only one conviction for the purposes of 3 subsections B and C of this section.

4           M. A person who has been convicted in any court outside the 5 jurisdiction of this state of an offense that was punishable by that 6 jurisdiction as a felony is subject to this section. A person who has been 7 convicted as an adult of an offense punishable as a felony under the 8 provisions of any prior code in this state or the jurisdiction in which the 9 offense was committed is subject to this section. A person who has been 10 convicted of a felony weapons possession violation in any court outside the 11 jurisdiction of this state that would not be punishable as a felony under 12 the laws of this state is not subject to this section.

13           N. The penalties prescribed by this section shall be substituted for 14 the penalties otherwise authorized by law if an allegation of prior 15 conviction is charged in the indictment or information and admitted or 16 found by the court. The release provisions prescribed by this section 17 shall not be substituted for any penalties required by the substantive 18 offense or a provision of law that specifies a later release or completion 19 of the sentence imposed before release. The court shall allow the 20 allegation of a prior conviction at any time before the date the case is 21 actually tried unless the allegation is filed fewer than twenty days before 22 the case is actually tried and the court finds on the record that the 23 person was in fact prejudiced by the untimely filing and states the reasons 24 for these findings. If the allegation of a prior conviction is filed, the 25 state must make available to the person a copy of any material or 26 information obtained concerning the prior conviction. The charge of 27 previous conviction shall not be read to the jury. For the purposes of 28 this subsection, "substantive offense" means the felony offense that the 29 trier of fact found beyond a reasonable doubt the person committed.
30 Substantive offense does not include allegations that, if proven, would 31 enhance the sentence of imprisonment or fine to which the person otherwise 32 would be subject.

1           O. A person who is sentenced pursuant to this section is not 2 eligible for suspension of sentence, probation, pardon or release from 3 confinement on any basis, except as specifically authorized by section 4 31-233, subsection A or B, until the sentence imposed by the court has been 5 served, the person is eligible for release pursuant to section 41-1604.07 6 or the sentence is commuted.

7           P. The court shall inform all of the parties before sentencing 8 occurs of its intent to impose an aggravated or mitigated sentence pursuant 9 to subsection H, I or J of this section. If the court fails to inform the 10 parties, a party waives its right to be informed unless the party timely 11 objects at the time of sentencing.

12           Q. The court in imposing a sentence shall consider the evidence and 13 opinions presented by the victim or the victim's immediate family at any 14 aggravation or mitigation proceeding or in the presentence report."

15 Amend title to conform

And, as so amended, it do pass
