1 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:

2 Section 1. Section 13-901, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to 3 read:

4 13-901. Probation

5 A. If a person who has been convicted of an offense is eligible for 6 probation, the court may suspend the imposition or execution of sentence 7 and, if so, shall without delay place the person on intensive probation 8 supervision pursuant to section 13-913 or supervised or unsupervised
9 probation on such terms and conditions as the law requires and the court 10 deems appropriate, including participation in any programs authorized in 11 title 12, chapter 2, article 11. If a person is not eligible for 12 probation, imposition or execution of sentence shall not be suspended or 13 delayed. If the court imposes probation, it may also impose a fine as 14 authorized by chapter 8 of this title. If probation is granted the court 15 shall impose a condition that the person waive extradition for any 16 probation revocation procedures and it shall order restitution pursuant to 17 section 13-603, subsection C where there is a victim who has suffered 18 economic loss. When granting probation to an adult the court, as a 19 condition of probation, shall assess a monthly fee of not less than $65
20 unless, after determining the inability of the probationer to pay the fee, 21 the court assesses a lesser fee. This fee is not subject to any 22 surcharge. In justice and municipal courts the fee shall only be assessed 23 when the person is placed on supervised probation. For persons placed on 24 probation in the superior court, the fee shall be paid to the clerk of the 25 superior court and the clerk of the court shall pay all monies collected 26 from this fee to the county treasurer for deposit in the adult probation 27 services fund established by section 12-267. For persons placed on 28 supervised probation in the justice court, the fee shall be paid to the 29 justice court and the justice court shall transmit all of the monies to 30 the county treasurer for deposit in the adult probation services fund
31 established by section 12-267. For persons placed on supervised probation 32 in the municipal court, the fee shall be paid to the municipal court. The 33 municipal court shall transmit all of the monies to the city treasurer who 34 shall transmit the monies to the county treasurer for deposit in the adult 35 probation services fund established by section 12-267. Any amount 36 assessed pursuant to this subsection shall be used to supplement monies 37 used for the salaries of adult probation and surveillance officers and for 38 support of programs and services of the superior court adult probation 39 departments.

40 B. The period of probation shall be determined according to section 41 13-902, except that if a person is released pursuant to section 31-233,
42 subsection B and community supervision is waived pursuant to section 43 13-603, subsection K, the court shall extend the period of probation by 44 the amount of time the director of the state department of corrections 45 approves for the inmate's temporary release.

1 C. The court, in its discretion, may issue a warrant for the 2 rearrest of the defendant and may modify or add to the conditions or, if 3 the defendant commits an additional offense or violates a condition, may 4 revoke probation in accordance with the ARIZONA rules of criminal 5 procedure at any time before the expiration or termination of the period 6 of probation. If the court revokes the defendant's probation and the 7 defendant is serving more than one probationary term concurrently, the 8 court may sentence the person to terms of imprisonment to be served 9 consecutively.

10 D. At any time during the probationary term of the person released 11 on probation, any probation officer, without warrant or other process and 12 at any time until the final disposition of the case, may rearrest any 13 person and bring the person before the court.

14 E. The court, on its own initiative or on application of the 15 probationer, after notice and an opportunity to be heard for the 16 prosecuting attorney and, on request, the victim, may terminate the period 17 of probation or intensive probation and discharge the defendant at a time 18 earlier than that originally imposed if in the court's opinion the ends of 19 justice will be served and if the conduct of the defendant on probation 20 warrants it.

21 F. When granting probation the court may require that the defendant
22 be imprisoned in the county jail at whatever time or intervals, 23 consecutive or nonconsecutive, the court shall determine, within the 24 period of probation, as long as the period actually spent in confinement 25 does not exceed one year or the maximum period of imprisonment allowed 26 under chapter 7 of this title, whichever is the shorter.

27 G. If the defendant is placed on lifetime probation and has served 28 one year in the county jail as a term of probation, the court may require 29 that the defendant be additionally imprisoned in the county jail at 30 whatever time or intervals, consecutive or nonconsecutive, the court shall 31 determine, within the period of probation if the defendant's probation is 32 revoked by the court and the defendant is subsequently reinstated on 33 probation. The period actually spent in confinement as a term of being 34 reinstated on probation shall not exceed one year or, when including the 35 initial one-year period of incarceration imposed as a term of probation, 36 the maximum period of imprisonment allowed under chapter 7 of this title, 37 whichever is shorter.

38 H. If restitution is made a condition of probation, the court shall 39 fix the amount of restitution and the manner of performance pursuant to 40 chapter 8 of this title.

41 I. When granting probation, the court shall set forth at the time
42 of sentencing and on the record the factual and legal reasons in support 43 of each sentence.

44 J. If the defendant meets the criteria set forth in section
45 13-901.01 or 13-3422, the court may place the defendant on probation

1 pursuant to either section. If a defendant is placed on probation 2 pursuant to section 13-901.01 or 13-3422, the court may impose any term of 3 probation that is authorized pursuant to this section and that is not in 4 violation of section 13-901.01.

5 K. If the court imposes a term of probation, the court may require 6 the defendant to report to a probation officer. The court or the 7 defendant's probation officer may allow the defendant to fulfill a 8 reporting requirement through remote reporting. The probation officer 9 shall take into consideration and make accommodations for the 10 probationer's work schedule, family caregiver obligations, substance abuse 11 treatment or recovery program, mental health treatment, transportation 12 availability and medical care requirements before setting the reporting 13 time and location requirements for the probationer.

14 L. ~~At the time of sentencing or disposition,~~ If a probationer makes 15 a written request to the supervising probation department to courtesy 16 transfer the probationer's intensive probation supervision or supervised 17 probation to another county in this state with the intent to reside in 18 that county and provides proof of family caregiver obligations, employment 19 or housing, or an offer of employment or housing that will assist in the 20 probationer's positive behavioral change, the supervising probation
21 department shall do all of the following:

22 1. Confirm the details of the probationer's employment, housing or 23 family caregiving plans.

24 2. Review any victim safety concerns and ensure compliance with the 25 victims' bill of rights.

26 3. Submit the request for permission to proceed to the receiving 27 county within seven business days after receipt.

28 M. After verifying the information submitted by the sending 29 probation department pursuant to subsection L of this section, the 30 receiving probation department shall provide the sending probation 31 department with permission for the probationer to proceed to the receiving 32 county within seven business days after receipt unless the receiving 33 probation department finds the basis for the plan is not factual or the 34 transfer will endanger the victim.

35 N. If a probationer's intensive probation supervision or supervised
36 probation is courtesy transferred to another county pursuant to subsection 37 L of this section and the probationer subsequently violates the terms of 38 the probationer's probation or commits an additional offense while on 39 probation, the probation department in the county in which the probation 40 violation or additional offense occurred may not return the probationer's 41 intensive probation supervision or supervised probation back to the county 42 in which the probationer's probation was originally imposed except for 43 revocation hearings or an order of the court.
