Representative Vince Leach Named Legislator of the Year by Arizona Restaurant Association

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Representative Vince Leach (R-11) recently was named Legislator of the Year by the Arizona Restaurant Association for his dedication to the restaurant industry.

“The Arizona Restaurant Association recognizes Representative Vince Leach for his years of service and dedication to Arizona,” said Skip Chase, Chairman of the Arizona Restaurant Association. “The restaurant industry is appreciative for his many years of great leadership on difficult and complicated issues. Thank you, Representative Leach, for your contributions to make all Arizona’s communities and businesses prosper.”

“Not only do Arizona’s restaurants create thousands of jobs and contribute to the strength of our economy, but they also make the best food in the country,” said Representative Leach. “I couldn’t be happier to be recognized as Legislator of the Year by the Arizona Restaurant Association.”

The Arizona Restaurant Association has been serving Arizona’s restaurants since 1939 and continues to help its members become leaders in their communities by building customer loyalty, escalating awareness of food safety and healthy living, bolstering a thriving industry and rewarding workforce, and increasing financial success.
