Representative Mark Finchem Receives Arizona Police Association's Legislator of the Year Award

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Representative Mark Finchem (R-11) recently received the Legislator of the Year award from the Arizona Police Association.

“Police across the state feel incredibly fortunate to have Representative Finchem at the Capitol fighting for them day in and day out. It was an honor to name him State Representative of the Year,” said Joe Clure, Executive Director of the Arizona Police Association.

“I am humbled to receive this award from the Arizona Police Association, an organization representing the thousands of brave officers who serve across Arizona,” said Representative Finchem. “Having retired from a 21-year career in public safety, I am proud to have the opportunity to again stand with heroic officers who keep our citizens safe.”

Representative Finchem worked for the Kalamazoo Department of Public Safety for 21 years, retiring in 1999.
