Representative Rivero Attends Rocky Point-Arizona Trade and Tourism Office Opening

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX

– Representative Tony Rivero (R-21), chairman of the House Local and International Affairs Committee, helped open the Rocky Point-Arizona Trade and Tourism Office in Puerto Peñasco, Sonora last month.

“It was an honor to join Mayor Munro in establishing the Rocky Point-Arizona Trade and Tourism Office,” said Representative Rivero. “The office will ensure that Arizonans can be confident in having a support network to feel secure and welcome while seeking economic opportunities in Rocky Point, and Sonorans can enjoy the commercial benefits that U.S dollars will bring. It’s another win-win for the Arizona-Sonora partnership.”

“We look forward to this effort to continue and strengthen the cultural, economic, and business ties of the Arizona-Sonora megaregion,” said David Adame, President & CEO of Chicanos por la Causa.

Rocky Point Trade and Tourism Office Coordinator Alan Renteria said, “We continue to develop relationships and work together. The bottom line for both countries is a common language we speak everyday — the bottom line.”

“With the creation of the Rocky Point-Arizona Trade and Tourism Office, Mayor Munro and the people of Rocky Point have rolled out the red carpet for Arizonans,” said Representative Todd Clodfelter (R-10), vice-chairman of the House Local and International Affairs Committee. “While Arizona and Sonora already enjoy a strong relationship, this new energy will certainly strengthen our ties.”

Puerto Penasco Mayor Kiko Munro said, “We have always opened our doors and arms of friendship to America. We remain vigilant in working with our good friends and trading partners in Arizona.” Munro recognized the past work and recognized fostering future opportunities, “This new office is just one step of many we are taking to improve both our economies – together we all win.”

Last month’s announcement follows an agreement between Arizona Governor Doug Ducey and Sonora Governor Claudia Pavlovich in December to create a safety corridor along Mexico’s Federal 8 highway, which Arizonans use to travel to Rocky Point.
