Rep. Mark Finchem Congratulates State Director of Arizona Legislative Prayer Caucus on Receiving Nelson Mandela Award

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Representative Mark Finchem (R-11) today congratulated Dr. Lydia Gonzalez-DRoss, Arizona Director of the Congressional Prayer Caucus Foundation, for having received the “Nelson Mandela Peace Award 2019.”

“I wish to extend my congratulations to Dr. Lydia Gonzalez-DRoss on her recent honor,” said Representative Finchem. “We in Arizona greatly appreciate her efforts to promote peace and faith to people everywhere, and we are fortunate to have someone of her caliber leading the Arizona Prayer Caucus.”

The award was presented by the Council of Justices of Peace of Sri Lanka during the Nelson Mandela International Peace Summit which was held in Colombo, Sri Lanka on December 7. It was presented in recognition for her role for promoting peace and empowering multi-faith women worldwide.

Dr. Gonzalez-DRoss is the creator of the Global Women Christian Chamber of Commerce Embassy and serves as the National Hispanic Director to the United States Prayer Council. The Arizona Legislative Prayer Caucus is a part of the American Prayer Caucus Network, which is a bipartisan network with over 1,000 legislators across the nation.
