Rep. Blackman: Grant Awarded to Coconino County Good for Recreation and Economic Growth

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Representative Walter Blackman (R-6) today commented on the recent announcement by the Arizona Water Protection Fund Commission that it has awarded grant funding to Coconino County Parks and Recreation for its proposed Harrenburg Wash Enhancement Project. The project seeks to enhance the riparian habitat at Harrenburg Wash and improve water quality.

"I am excited to learn that the Arizona Water Protection Fund Commission voted to award funding for the County's Harrenburg Wash Enhancement Project – an important project of which I have been supportive," said Representative Blackman. "I believe the project will help beautify and provide more recreational opportunities in Northern Arizona and add to the economic growth of Coconino County."
