FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Housing Supply Study Committee to Hold Meetings in Flagstaff, Tucson, Sierra Vista & Sedona

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – State Representative Steve Kaiser, co-chair of the Housing Supply Study Committee, announced today that the bipartisan committee is going on the road during the month of September, holding public meetings in Flagstaff, Tucson, Sierra Vista, and Sedona to receive community-level input. Public comment is strongly encouraged.

Flagstaff – Wednesday, September 7, 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.
NACET Conference Room, 2225 North Gemini Rd.

Tucson – Monday, September 12, 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.
City Council Chambers, 255 West Alameda St., 1st Floor

Sierra Vista – Monday, September 19, 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.
City Council Chambers, 1011 North Coronado Dr.

Sedona – Monday, September 26, 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.
City Council Chambers, 102 Roadrunner Dr.

The Arizona Legislature created the Housing Supply Study Committee to review data on the scope of housing supply and access in Arizona, compile an overview of ways to address Arizona's housing shortage and to mitigate its causes, and solicit ideas and opinions of industry and subject matter experts and the community on additional recommendations.
