State Representative Bliss Earns “Legislator of the Year” Award from Arizona Citizens Defense League for Second Amendment Support

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – The Arizona Citizens Defense League (AzCDL) has presented freshman State Representative Selina Bliss with its 2023 “Legislator of the Year” award for the support and defense of the 2nd Amendment. Representative Bliss, Vice Chair of the House Judiciary Committee, received the honor at AzCDL’s 18th annual meeting in Tucson on Saturday.

“I am immensely honored to be recognized by the Arizona Citizens Defense League,” said Representative Bliss. “They are a terrific organization, dedicated to legislative action in support of the Second Amendment. Like them, I believe fervently in safeguarding our citizens’ right to bear arms – a cornerstone of our Constitution. As a state legislator, it is my privilege to work alongside fellow Arizonans in safeguarding and preserving the freedoms that define our great state, and to stand against any attempts to undermine those cherished liberties.”

The AzCDL is a non-profit, non-partisan grassroots volunteer organization committed to upholding the principles outlined in Article II, Section 2 of the Arizona Constitution.

Selina Bliss is a Republican member of the Arizona House of Representatives serving Legislative District 1 in Yavapai County. She chairs the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Fiscal Accountability and serves as Vice Chair of the House Judiciary Committee. Follow her on X/Twitter at @SelinaBliss.
